Re: Gregory Royal v. Integreon Managed Solutions, Inc., et al., Case No. 1:19-cv-00822-RP – Defendants IMS et al. Have Breached the Mediation Settlement Agreement

Dear Honorable Judge Pitman:

I received your July 8, 2021 Order closing Gregory Royal v. Integreon Managed Solutions, Inc., et al., Case No. 1:19-cv-00822-RP on July 13, 2021. I check my mailbox daily and I do not understand why mail from the Court takes so many days to reach me. Notwithstanding the apparent mail issue, I request your attention to an emergency matter.

Case No. 1:19-cv-00822-RP was settled between parties during the mediation and memorialized via a Mediated Settlement Agreement (MSA). Defendants IMS et al., however, have breached the MSA and now refuse to comply with the agreed to terms of the MSA. Moreover, defendants IMS et al. have breached the MSA with prior knowledge that their breach would cause and is causing me severe physical, emotional, and mental injuries as well as severely damaging me financially in my financial transactions that I entered into solely based on the agreed to MSA. The failure of defendants IMS et al. to comply with the MSA is further severely prohibiting and damaging me from obtaining basic life necessities such as food and shelter as well as moving forward with necessities for me to obtain employment, etc.

Defendants IMS et al. have been—at all times material—knowledgeable that their refusal to comply with the MSA would and is a direct and proximate cause of the above injuries. Attorneys for the defendants IMS et al., Andrew Scott and Robert Horn, Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, Houston, Texas, are misusing and abusing the far superior position of IMS, et al., and exerting “undue influence” to deliberately and maliciously deny me the intended benefits and consideration to be received for my signing and entering into the MSA. I shall soon file an emergency motion on the defendants' malicious breach—within two days by Monday, July 19, 2021. But I wanted to bring this matter to your immediate attention.

Respectfully,

/s/ Gregory Allen Royal
